 - (ii) intended declaration of dividends (both interim and final);
 - (iii) change in capital structure;
 - (iv) mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposal and expansion of business;
 - (v) any change in Key Managerial Personnel of the Company; and
 - (vi) any material events in accordance with the listing agreement.
8. “Other Words and expressions” means words and expressions used and not specifically defined herein, as the same have been defined to mean under the Regulations; the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the SEBI Act, 1992, the Depositories Act, 1996 or the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules framed thereunder.

(III) Duties of the Compliance Officer

1. He/ She shall be responsible for setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of UPSI, pre-clearing of all the trades of all the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries (hereinafter referred as “the Employees”) including Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives

(directly or through respective department heads, as may be decided by the Company from time to time), monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.

2. He/ She shall assist in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct.
3. He/ She shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate form for a period prescribed under applicable Regulations.

(IV) Preservation of “ Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employees / Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all UPSI. They shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for entering into any trade in the Securities of the Company or in any other manner whatsoever nor shall they allow or facilitate access to such information.

(V) Prevention of misuse of “ Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

1. The Company shall specify a trading period from time to time to be called "Trading Window", for trading in the Company's Securities. The trading window shall be closed during the time the information referred to in para (V) 3 is un-published.
2. Employees / Designated Persons and Immediate Relatives shall not trade in the Securities of the Company during the Closure of the “Trading Window” i.e. the period during which trading in Securities of the Company is prohibited.
3. The “Trading Window” shall be, closed Inter alia at the time of : -
 - (i) periodical financial results of the Company;
 - (ii) intended declaration of dividends (both interim and final);
 - (iii) mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposal and expansion of business; and
 - (iv) any material events in accordance with the listing agreement.

The period of commencement of closure of Trading Window shall be intimated, in advance, by the Company, from time to time.

4. The Trading Window shall be opened 48 hours after the information referred to in para 3 or any other information which could be deemed to be of a price sensitive nature, becomes public.
5. All Employees / Designated Persons and Immediate Relatives shall trade in the Securities of the Company only during the free period and not during the periods when Trading Window is closed, as referred to in para (V) 3 above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

6. The Trading Window shall also be applicable to persons who are having contractual or fiduciary relations with the Company including the Auditors, Accountancy Firms, Law Firms etc., assisting or advising the Company.

(VI) Pre-clearance of Trades

1. All Employees / Designated Persons, for themselves and also for their Immediate Relatives, who intend to trade in Securities of the Company, aggregating to trade value of Rupees Ten Lacs or more, during a calendar quarter, should obtain a pre-clearance of the transactions.
2. An application for pre-clearance of the proposed transaction shall be made in attached format (Application for Pre-Clearance of Trade) in this regard, to the Compliance Officer.
3. An undertaking shall be executed in favour of the Company, in the attached format.
4. All Employees / Designated Persons and Immediate Relatives shall execute their order for trading in the Securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
5. No Employee / Designated Person and Immediate Relatives, shall apply for pre clearance of any proposed trade when in possession of an UPSI, even if the trading window is not closed.

(VII) Restriction on opposite transaction till six months

All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives who trade in the Securities of the Company shall not execute a contra trade, during the next six months following the preceding transaction.

For the sake of clarity, if any Designated Person and their Immediate Relatives has bought any shares / Securities of the Company, he / she cannot sell any Securities of the Company, within a period of six months, from the date of such purchase.

Similarly, in case any Designated Person and their Immediate Relatives has sold any Securities, he / she cannot acquire any Securities, within a period of six months, from the date of such sale.

Provided that the aforesaid provisions shall not be applicable in case of exercise of ESOPs.

Provided further that the Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Insider Trading Regulations.

For the Sake of Clarity:

(i) If a designated person has sold/ purchased shares, he can subscribe and exercise ESOPs at any time after such sale/purchase, without attracting contra trade restrictions.

(ii) Where a designated person acquires shares under an ESOP and subsequently sells/pledges those shares, such sale shall not be considered as contra trade, with respect to exercise of ESOPs.

(iii) Where a designated person purchases some shares (say on August 01, 2015), acquires shares later under an ESOP (say on September 01, 2015) and subsequently sells / pledges (say on October 01, 2015) shares so acquired under ESOP, the sale will not be a contra trade but will be subject other provisions of the Regulations, however, he will not be able to sell the shares purchased on August 01, 2015 during the period of six months from August 01, 2015.

(iv) Where a designated person sells shares (say on August 01, 2015), acquires shares later under an ESOP (say on September 01, 2015) the acquisition under ESOP shall not be a contra trade. Further, he can sell/pledge shares so acquired at anytime thereafter without attracting contra trade restrictions. He, however, will not be able to purchase further shares during the period of six months from August 01, 2015 when he had sold shares.

(VIII) Reporting Requirements for transactions in Shares

1. The following disclosures of the Securities held in the Company shall be made to the Compliance Officer :
 - (a) Every person on appointment as the key managerial personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming its promoter, shall disclose his holding of the Securities of the Company, as on the date of appointment, or becoming a promoter, to the Company, within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter;
 - (b) Every promoter, employee or director of the Company and its subsidiaries shall disclose the number of such Securities, purchased or sold within 2 (two) trading days of such transaction, if the value of the Securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value, in excess of Rs. Ten Lacs. The disclosure shall be made in the format prescribed for the purpose under the Regulations.

For the avoidance of doubts, it is clarified that the disclosure of the incremental transaction, after any disclosure under (b) above, shall be made, when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold limit of Rs. Ten Lacs.

(IX) Penalty for contravention of code of conduct

1. Any Employees including Designated Person, who himself/herself or through his/her Immediate Relatives trades in Securities of the Company or communicates any UPSI, for trade in Securities or facilitates the communication of such information, in contravention of this Code of Conduct may be penalized and appropriate action may be taken by the Company.

2. Designated Person who violates the Code of Conduct shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, withholding of promotions and including ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, etc.
3. The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action against any Employee including Designated Person in case of violation of these Regulations & Company's Code of Conduct.
